

White Oak Whisperings.

Mr. Don Fyffe was a Springfield visitor Saturday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jones recently, a daughter.

Arthur Hornbeck viewed the sights of Raymond Sunday.

Miss Dora Crall, one of Morrisonville's accomplished young ladies, was the guest of Miss Mattie Sigley over Sunday.

T. T. Leaper's family are confined to their beds with the measles.

The Starr Dramatic Troupe have concluded to close their play for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hendricks, W. A. Lyman and wife, Mr. Frank Hendricks and family visited in Harvel Saturday evening.

Mr. C. Hendricks, one of Harvel's prominent business men, accompanied by his brother Otto, smiled on relatives here Tuesday.

Messrs. C. E. Lyman, Don Fyffe, J. A. Lyman, McGinty, and the Misses Eva Lyman, Mary Hendricks, Mattie Sigley and Miss Dora Crall of Morrisonville were sojourning in Harvel Friday night on a sleighing excursion.

"Rumor has it that Logan Sigley has taken unto himself a wife. We will not vouch for the truth of it, but are willing to extend congratulations all the same."

—Soregato Blade.

We owe our many thanks for the above congratulations, but think in our case that equidolence would be more appreciated.

1693.
McGinty

Glass, Putty, etc., at the Cash Hardware Store.

We are informed that J. Logan Sigley has lately joined the "Grand Army of Benedictine" recently. If this is true, we wish Logan all the bliss and events that this earth contains.

Rev. Depenbrock announced from the pulpit Sunday, that those who have been guilty of peeping through the windows, and otherwise disturbing services at the church would in the future be prosecuted to the full extent of the Law.

Those new Paring Suits at Whitworth & Co's are beautiful. I was surprised. I bought this suit for $7.00; it would have cost me $10.00 in Greenville or Tallahassee.

Wm. J. Assel, in 1892

MORRIS CHAPEL.

Rain, rain; plenty of it. Politics is the business now. Some have sowed a few casts. Some damage done by the water to fences.

The Laundry of Kirkland and Sigley is a failure.

Miss Abbie Lindley is staying with her sister at Harvel's.

Wm. and John File hauled lumber to Mt. Olive, Friday.

Geo. Ray and Wm. Huffman both have new sets of harness.

R. B. Kirkland and family visited at T. W. Evans', Saturday.

Mr. Chas. Valentine was in these parts Sunday and Monday.

C. W. Garrison was in this community Thursday, buying corn.

Don't forget the Quarterly meeting next Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Zettie Lindley visited with Stringtown friends the last of the week.

Some of our bees were caught in the rain Sunday night. Boys, don't talk so long next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman spent Friday with Donnellson friends.

Rev. Hampton spent Sunday with Bro. Kirkland. "Owing to the rain there was no preaching at this place.

John File says ringing hoes is bad business, and we judge from the wound on top of his head that he is about right.

C. F. Kirkland informs us that his horse does not run off bridges; but says it can run over every stump on Shoal Creek.

John, Ed. and Steve File accompanied by their three sisters attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Dora Lindley, at Pochontas, Sunday evening.

Logan Sigley is not the man for the north. As a candidate for matrimony he may be sought without opposition in the west of the "Arkansas Territory."

Wm. J. Assel