

White Oak News.

Corn husking is the order of the day.

Jas Holbrook was in Edinburg Friday.

Mrs. Effie Kelley, of Morrisonville, was the guest of her sister over Sunday.

Mrs. Tade and daughter, Dora, were guests at John Wenzler's Thursday.

A. C. Dragoo and family were Springfield visitors last week.

Orville Eldred is slowly recovering from a siege of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Peter Christopher was the guests of Lou Harvey at Morrisonville last week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Otto Hendricks returned Tuesday from a two weeks visit at Carlinville Thos. Tade, of Palmer, was in town Friday. Tom is nursing a broken leg.

Rev. R. S. Moor and wife, of Sidney, Neb. formerly of our city have returned to their home after a few weeks visit here.

Quite a number of our citizens have been summoned to Hillsboro on a courting tour.

O' Say? girls, thereafter when in need of a "Driver" give us a call. Though slightly disfigured we are still in the ring.

Lyman Lyles was very seriously injured Saturday while riding a vicious horse.

Mrs. John Sams while picking apples a few days ago, fell and was very badly if not fatally hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tade, of Marshall, Mo., are the guests of relatives here.

J. L. Sigley returned Sunday from a two weeks visit with Morrisonville friends.

C. T. Eason was a Raymond visitor Saturday and Girard Sunday.

Oct. 19th was a gala day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hendricks south of town, where quite a number of their immediate relatives and friends assembled to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their wedded life. The affair was a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks.

Monday evening, Oct. 18, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lyman entertained quite a number of their gentlemen friends with cake and cigars in honor of their recent marriage also on the following Friday night the ladies assisted by J. L. Sigley agreeably surprised them again and were very pleasantly entertained with oysters. Some

*Observed Parkville
was 1887. J. L. S.*